

IORA WORKSHOP ON DEVELOPMENT OF A REGIONAL STRATEGY TO ADDRESS THE SUSTAINABLE
MANAGEMENT AND DEVELOPMENT OF FISHERIES RESOURCES IN THE INDIAN OCEAN RIM REGION

30 – 31 OCTOBER 2017

ZANZIBAR, UNITED REPUBLIC OF TANZANIA.

Draft Programme

Welcome Dinner on 29 October 2017

DAY 1: 30 October 2017

Arrival and Registration of Participants

Inaugural Session

COFFEE BREAK

Outline of arrangement and participants' introduction

Session 1: Sustainable management, development and utilization of coastal, EEZ and high seas fisheries in the Indian Ocean rim region: Best Practices in IORA Member States

Session 2: Capacity building program for sustainable development of coastal, EEZ and high seas for Indian Ocean rim region

Session 3: Regional Strategy to combat IUU fishing

Session 4: Promoting technology transfer for sustainable production of fish and fishery products

DAY 2: 31 October 2017

Session 5: Effects, adaptation and mitigation of climate changes on sustainable, conservation, management and utilization of fisheries resources in the Indian Ocean Rim Region

Panel Discussion on "Promoting collaboration with regional organisations for sustainable management of coastal, EEZ and high seas fisheries in the Indian Ocean rim region"

Working Session: Recommendations, outcomes and approval of the report of the workshop by participating Member States

Closing